

I have found that the FCC has been looking back 3 years into the archives of radio broadcast to determine if any violations had occurred. Now I know the government is slow, but this is ridiculous!! If you have not discovered these violations by now, somebody needs to get fired!! Starting with Powell!! Sounds like a political witch hunt to me.